About the Australian High Commission, Port Moresby

The Australian High Commission (AHC) represents the Australian Government by advancing the interests of Australia and Australians in Papua New Guinea (PNG). Our primary national interest is in a strong bilateral relationship underpinned by a peaceful, secure and prosperous PNG and Pacific Region. The AHC is also responsible for apprising Canberra about developments in areas such as domestic politics, immigration, economics, trade and investment, culture, defence and development cooperation, with a view to informing Australia's foreign policy. We also promote a positive image of Australia, enhancing people-to-people links, and delivering consular assistance to Australians in need.

About the Bougainville and Kokoda Program

The Bougainville and Kokoda Program coordinates Australia's policy and development assistance in the Autonomous Region of Bougainville and to communities along the Kokoda Track. The Bougainville Program is managed at the AHC and is supported by a team located at the Buka Office.

About the position

Under limited direction, the Program Manager will work as part of a team helping to coordinate the delivery of Australia's aid program in Bougainville.

Within the Buka Office, the Program Manager will play a key role working flexibly across the development assistance portfolio to manage and monitor the Bougainville Partnership and support implementation of sector programs, ensuring they align to Australia's objectives to promote stability, peace and economic development in Bougainville, and that they correspond to the priorities of the Autonomous Bougainville Government (ABG) and Papua New Guinea (PNG) Governments.

The key responsibilities of the position include, but are not limited to:

- Coordinate the implementation, monitoring, and evaluation of Australian-supported programs, including key sectoral program, and activities in Bougainville
- Work closely with the managing contractor to develop and manage project plans, manage and mitigate program risks, and ensure timely program delivery and expenditure
- Provide strategic program management advice at critical junctures (e.g. program design and closure phases); provide technical input on terms of reference, requests for tender, concept notes, design documents, project appraisal and sectoral reviews; draft briefs and analysis as required

- Engage actively and foster networks with multiple stakeholders, including ABG and PNG Government officials, private sector, civil society organisations and other development partners to identify opportunities for collaboration through our program activities
- Develop, maintain and strengthen constructive working relationships with key sector programs within the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT), the Bougainville Partnership managing contractor, and implementing partners
- Ensure DFAT's cross-cutting policies on Gender Equality, Disability, Child Protection, and Climate Resilience, including environmental safeguards, are applied in all aspects of policy and program development and implementation in Bougainville
- Assess, monitor and report on unintended social impacts to prevent, manage and mitigate social safeguarding risks, including Preventing Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Harassment (PSEAH) in policy and program development
- Work with the AHC Public Diplomacy team and the managing contractor to contribute to media releases and organise events in line with the Bougainville Program's Communication Strategy and improve visibility of the Australian Government's support in Bougainville
- Support coordination of activities for AHC visits to Bougainville
- Provide administrative support as required, including managing correspondence and communication, assisting with logistics, as well as performing the role as IT focal point (LANA) for the Buka Office

Required skills and capabilities

- Strong experience in program management and knowledge of complex development issues.
- High level organisational skills, ability to work under pressure and prioritise tasks in a busy working environment.
- Strong team player with high level interpersonal skills and ability to mentor junior staff members.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills in English and Tok Pisin.
- A current unrestricted Class 3/6 driver's licence with a good driving record, and the ability to maintain such a licence.
- Basic first aid certification is highly desirable.
- Strong computer skills using Microsoft Office applications.

Eligibility/Other Requirements

Offers of employment are conditional on the satisfactory completion of medical and local police security checks. The AHC is a COVID-19 vaccinated workplace.

ONE-PAGE PITCH

The Australian High Commission (AHC), Port Moresby uses the one-page pitch (1,000 word limit) approach to job applications. The one-page pitch streamlines the recruitment process for the AHC, the Selection Advisory Committee (SAC) and applicants.

Your one-page pitch should address your work experience and capabilities against the position description. It is a chance to tell the SAC why you are the right person for the job.

The SAC want to know why you are interested in the role, what you can offer the AHC, and how your skills, knowledge, experience and qualifications are applicable to the role. In a nutshell – why we should hire you?

Addressing the requirements of the position

The information in the position description (pages two to three), will help you understand the responsibilities and tasks of the position. The position description describes the skills, knowledge, experience and qualifications (if any) a person needs to perform the role effectively. The SAC will assess how applicants address these requirements to create a shortlist of applicants suitable to move to the next stage of the recruitment process.

It is essential to address any job-specific information or qualities that have been identified in the position description.

The pitch gives you the opportunity to tell a story and use examples that may cover a range of skills and experiences, such as organisational skills, oral and written communication skills, and the ability to work as part of a team.

You should provide relevant examples from your work, study or community roles. Be clear and to the point.

Please make sure you adhere to the 1,000 word limit, and thoroughly review your response checking all grammar, spelling and punctuation.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

Acknowledgement

Given the large number of candidates who apply for jobs at the Australian High Commission (AHC), only those shortlisted for interview will be contacted.

Shortlisting

The shortlisting of candidates will commence after the advertisement closing date. The timeframe for shortlisting will depend on the size of the application field, and may take several weeks to complete. The Selection Advisory Committee will shortlist candidates against the selection criteria and only those candidates who demonstrate the strongest claims will be shortlisted for interview.

Assessment of candidates

The Selection Advisory Committee may use a variety of methods to assess candidates. These may include an interview, a written exercise or a specific skills test.

Interview

The AHC will consider a candidate's availability for interview from the date applications close, unless advised otherwise. The Selection Advisory Committee will give a candidate a minimum of three days' notice prior to interview. Upon notification of selection for interview, the candidate should advise the Human Resources section of any special requirements.

All interviewed candidates will be advised of the selection process outcome via email.

Referee Reports

Candidates should include the details of two professional referees in their Job Application Form. Ideally, one will be a current or recent supervisor. In most circumstances, referee reports will only be requested from candidates shortlisted for interview.

Selection

The AHC's staff selection process is governed by the merit principle. The merit principle requires that selections are based on abilities, qualifications, experience and standards of work performance as reflected in the selection criteria and preclude discrimination on the basis of age, gender, race or sexual preference.

Order of Merit and Placement

Suitable candidates will be placed on an order of merit and may be offered a suitable position up to 12 months from the date of advertising. Being found suitable does not guarantee a promotion, transfer or offer of employment. If a candidate declines the position offered, they will be placed back on the order of merit, and may be offered a position within the 12-month timeframe.

The Australian High Commission promotes a workplace free from discrimination and harassment, and is a smoke and betel nut (buai) free environment.
